PROFILE

My background is in Humanities, specifically in History (UNRC), with a postgraduate degree in Philosophy (UCC). Soon I was dedicated to promoting publishing projects in the academic field and Open Access consultancies until I founded Paideia Studio in 2021 with the aim of providing an integral service to the sector.

At the same time, I have created and managed technological projects with social and cultural impact. My profile is focused on technological development for the cultural and academic sector with a strong emphasis on the human dimension of its effects.
